

Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics

Fall 2014 Seminar Series

Sponsored by The Zwick Center for Food and Resource Policy

All events are at 11am on Fridays in WB Young room 327 unless otherwise noted

- September 5 Richard Dunn, University of Connecticut
Decomposing the danger of drinking drivers: 1983 to 2012
- September 9 Chris Anderson, University of Washington
Fisheries performance indicators: A management tool for triple bottom line outcomes
- Tuesday
12:30
304WBY
- September 19 Nathan Fiala, University of Connecticut
Generating skilled self-employment in developing countries: Experimental evidence from Uganda
- September 26 Elena Lopez, University of Alcalá de Henares, Spain
Lessons from the Spanish Economic Crisis
- October 3 Rebecca Cleary, Analysis Group, Boston MA
Consumption externalities and preference complementarities
- October 17 Yizao Liu, University of Connecticut
Social media consumer engagement, attention, and market shares in the carbonated soft drink industry
- October 31 Charles Towe, University of Connecticut
A repeat sales approach to valuation of restored urban streams
- November 7 Chad Cotti, University of Wisconsin
Food stamp benefit timing and drunk driving fatalities
- November 14 Gal Hochman, Rutgers University
Doing well by doing good: Climate change and the balance of trade
- November 19 Maria Perez, University of Oviedo, Spain
Eco-efficiency among dairy farmers: The importance of socioeconomic characteristics and farmer attitudes
- Wednesday
2:30
304 WBY
- December 5 Xiaoyong Zheng, North Carolina State University
The effects of shelf nutrition labels on consumer demand

Please visit the ARE Seminar Webpage for updates

Contact: Rigoberto Lopez, rigoberto.lopez@uconn.edu or Ben Campbell, ben.campbell@uconn.edu