

2019 University of Connecticut
Income Tax School
November 13 & 14, 2019
Four Points by Sheraton, Meriden, CT

The University of Connecticut Income Tax School is a two-day program on federal and state taxes. It is designed to bring you up to date with the latest tax law information as you prepare for the upcoming tax preparation season. The program is specifically designed for accountants, consultants, attorneys, enrolled agents and all other tax professionals who prepare taxes.

Each registrant receives both the volumes of the 2019 Federal Tax Workbook. The Income Tax School will have an outstanding group of instructors from the Internal Revenue Service, the Connecticut Department of Revenue Services, and private legal and accounting practices. Each instructor has expertise in important federal or state taxation issues as well as teaching experience.

Enrolled Agents attending this year's program will receive four credits of "federal tax law update" topics, seven credits of "federal tax law related" topics, AND two credits of "ethics" topics. UConn's IRS CE provider number and relevant program numbers will be made available to the participants during the tax school in November.

UConn tax school participants seeking credits to fulfill any continuing education requirements applicable to all the other categories of tax professionals (for example, CPAs) will be awarded 16 hours of Continuing Professional Education credits and will receive a University of Connecticut certificate of completion.
